MONUMENT

Is inscribed
In the hearts of the American People,
And of the

Friends of Liberty and Humanity

Throughout the World,
To the

MEMORY

ABRAHAM LINCOLN,

Sixteenth President of the United States of America.

And the GREAT EMANCIPATOR of Four Millions of a Down-Trodden Race.

HE DIED on the Morning of the 16th of April, A. D. 1865.

A MARTYR

To his Country.

Falling under the Blows of a Treacherous Assassin.

On the night of the 14th Day of April, 1865, the Fourth Anniversary of the Beginning of the great

Through which he had led the Nation to a Glorious Triumph, just completed,

When the Dastardly Revenge of Vengeful Treason was wrought in his Mysterious Murder.

The Great Republic loved him as its Father, and revered him as the Preserver of its National Life.
The oppressed People of all Lands looked up to him as the Avenger of Liberty.

And hailed in him the consecrated Leader of her Cause.

He struck the chains of Slavery from Four Millions of a despised Race.

And with a Noble Faith in Humanity, mingled them to the slanted Decency of Manhood.

By his Wisdom, his Endurance, his Calm Temper, his Steadfast Patience, his lofty Courage and his loftier Faith.

He saved the Republic from Dissolution.

By his Simple Integrity he illustrated the selected Principles of its Constitution.

By all the results of his Administration of its Government, he inaugurated a New Era in the History of Mankind.

The Wisdom of his Statesmanship was evinced only by its Virtuousness.

Exercising a Power which surpassed that of Kings.

He bore himself always as the Servant of the People, and never as their Master.

Too sincere in the Simplicity of his Nature to be elated by an Elevation the Foremost among Human Dignities.

He stands in the ranks of the Illustration of all Time as the Purest Exemplar of Democracy.

While Goodness is Beloved, and Great Deeds are Remembered,

The World will never cease to Revere the Name and Memory of

ABRAHAM LINCOLN,

"If God wills that this mighty scourge of war continue until all the wealth piled by the bondman's two hundred and fifty years of unrequited toil shall be sunk, and until every drop of blood drawn by the lash shall be paid by another drawn with the sword—as was said five thousand years ago, so still it must be said, that 'the judgments of the Lord are true and righteous altogether.'"

ABRAHAM LINCOLN.

MARCH 4th, 1865.

THE GREAT EMANCIPATOR.

Treason hath done is worst;
Nor steel, nor poison, domestic malice, foreign levy,
Nothing can harm him further.

He was a man, take him for all in all,
We shall not look upon his like again.

This Lincoln
Hath borne his faculties so meek, hath been,
So clear in his great office, that his virtues
Do plead, like angels, trumpet-tongued, against
The deep damnation of his taking-off.

If this country cannot be saved without giving up that principle—I was about to say that I would rather be assassinated upon the spot than to surrender it.

SPEECH OF ABRAHAM LINCOLN.

And upon this act, sincerely believed to be an act of justice, warranted by the Constitution upon military necessity, I invoke the considerate judgment of mankind, and the gracious favor of Almighty God.

ABRAHAM LINCOLN'S
Emancipation Proclamation.
